

GUARD WHAT'S YOURS

MONITOR YOUR CREDIT

As a service member, you protect our country.
It's also important to protect your credit.

— Why is —
CREDIT MONITORING
— important? —

Credit monitoring is an easy way to stay on top of your finances, whether you're home or abroad. If you know there's a problem, you can take steps to correct any mistakes or fraudulent activity that may impact your credit score.

— Where do I find —
CREDIT MONITORING
— services? —

Take advantage of free credit monitoring services designed specifically by the national credit bureaus for service members. Visit each bureau's website for eligibility information.

EQUIFAX

- ✓ View notifications of important changes to your credit report.
- ✓ Access your Equifax credit report daily.
- ✓ Receive automatic fraud alerts.
- ✓ Get identity theft insurance coverage up to $25,000.

experian.

- ✓ Check your latest credit information for accuracy.
- ✓ Review an updated report every 30 days.
- ✓ Receive daily alerts when important changes occur.
- ✓ Transfer information through a private, secure connection.

TransUnion^{tu}

- ✓ Quickly and easily lock and unlock your credit information.
- ✓ Get instant alert notifications when someone applies for credit in your name or when critical credit information changes.
- ✓ Access unlimited credit report refreshes.
- ✓ Receive ID theft insurance up to $25,000.

OFFICE OF
FINANCIAL READINESS

Need assistance or advice? Visit your accredited personal financial manager or counselor at your nearest Family Center.

For more resources and tips follow the Office of Financial Readiness at <https://finred.usalearning.gov> and @DoDFINRED on     .